Karen: You want this back in the morning, right?
me: maybe afternoon, I'm actually going to talk to Gregg again at like 10:00 am Karen: No problem. Also, FYI there are some very good sentences at the end that you can easily turn into some good quotes. Kind of an overview on philosophy, what purpose anon and others have in current society, etc.
me: yeah, that's the plan
me: if you've got any more ideas on placement, etc, jot them down Karen: OK, will do. Talk later.
